

DOMAINE SAINT SATURNIN DE VERGY

Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Beaune 2020

History

The Domaine Saint Saturnin de Vergy vineyard extends over sunny hillsides capable of producing the very best Chardonnays and Pinot Noirs. The wines vinified at the Estate are renowned for their quality and character. Expected to fade into oblivion, this vineyard has performed a successful comeback through patience and courage. since the 1950s; the Hautes-Côtes-de-Nuits and the Hautes-Côtes-de-Beaune have seen a real renaissance.

Grape variety

Pinot Noir

Origin

It is located between Ladoix-Serrigny and the beautiful Maranges hill.

Vinification

Traditional : the harvest occurs when the grapes are matured, then the grapes are scraped, the fermentation with a thermo-regulated temperature follows and to finish, there is a long period in a vat (>10 days).

Soil

Limestone and marl.

Colour

Morello cherry colour

Nose

Fruity with morello cherry and raspberry aromas progressing on blackcurrant, spicy and liquorice flavors

Palate

Generous palate, lively and structured with strong tannins

Recommandations

It goes perfectly with roasted meats like veal cooked with curry or more raditionally salty, a tourte from Burgundy, soft cheeses.

Serving

14-16°C

Cellar potential

Drink within 2 or 3 years.

MAISON
FRANÇOIS MARTENOT
BEAUNE

www.maisonfrancoismartenot.com